Superformance S1

Registration Is Important

The "numbers" are particularly important. We have tried to clarify this by carefully defining the three key numbers as described below.

Registry Choices

S1 Chassis Number

The S1 Chassis Number is stamped on the chassis number tag. It is in the format SPSnnnn where nnnn is the sequential production number assigned by the factory. The second S is for S1. For example, the Chassis number for the thirty-fifth car is SPS0035.

S1 Car Number

The S1 Car Number is Snnnn where nnnn is the number in the Chassis Number. For example, the Car Number for SPS0035 is S0035.

VIN Number

The VIN number is assigned by the state where the car is/was registered. The VIN number will be on your state registration card. .
